

Aria Gospel Choir and Gospel Singers

The Aria International Gospel Choir comprises of singers with ethnic backgrounds from many countries of the World. The members have perfectly matched voices and they present a varied and interesting mixture of music that is inspired from the Soul.

Formed in 1988 the choir has developed into one of the foremost touring choirs in Europe with appearances at Theatres, Festivals, Weddings and Commercial events throughout the UK and Europe.

A fine balance of male and female voices bring the words to life, involving the audience in hand clapping and even dancing in the aisles and the most conservative will not be failed to be moved.

‘Music alone lifts the soul of the listener but the Aria Choir members add an extra ingredient’
Philip Hatto Kestrel FM

Both the Choir and the Singers will perform 2 x 1 hour slots or for weddings in a church they will attend and sing in the church and then attend the reception to complete the performance.
