

Espree - Live Party / Function Band

Suzanne Miller is the Musical Director for Espree and is also a current guest presenter for several popular satellite television channels, an accomplished DJ and singing coach at several modern vocal schools in London, as well as one of the full-time lead singers for Espree.

Espree was launched in 1995 after Suzanne had returned to London, having previously launched a new Karaoke Bar Chain in Europe, which hosted 10 venues within a year. In the past 5 years Suzanne has appeared with her band at many musical events including The Edinburgh Festival, The London Jazz Festival and the MTV Europe Music Awards After Show Party. They have also performed at Buckingham Palace for the Queen's staff as well as for many other prestigious clients and venues.

Espree brings together music, dance, lights and sound to produce one of the most exciting live entertainment acts in the UK today, performing music and dance routines guaranteed to get any audience on their feet!

Espree have a proven reputation for professionalism, reliability and great value for money, presenting an exciting non-stop show of contemporary dance music from the 60's to the 00's, supported by some of the most sought after and talented top session musicians in London.

Espree's repertoire includes music from artists such as Kool & the Gang, Stevie Wonder, Michael Jackson & The Jackson 5, James Brown, Sister Sledge and Jocelyn Brown through to more contemporary artists including material from Jamiroquai, Moloko, Robbie Williams, Ricky Martin and Kylie.

Their material is so universally popular that Espree have performed not only in the UK but also in Ireland, Germany, Holland, Spain, France, Dubai, Israel, Oman and Australia. Espree was featured in BBC1's documentary "The Wedding", and were also regular guests on Channel 4's Big Breakfast and Chris Evans' TFI's Friday.
