

Freeze Frame

Freeze Frame were formerly known as 'Revival', a hugely successful band in the South of England over the last few years. Lead vocalist Jamie Bruce has linked up once again with Drummer Jeremy Fisher, Bassist Darren Hillier and Guitarist Keff McCulloch to create a tight, rocky and entertaining band that specialises in the best party and dance music from the 60's through to the present day. The aim of the band is to play live, authentic versions of those classic rock and pop dance numbers that make your party go with a swing.

The band do not use any backing tapes or midi files. All four members of the band sing lead and backing vocals and pride themselves on the quality and professionalism of the music and harmonies.

We regularly update our repertoire of songs and can very easily - if requested - learn 'your special song' for your party or your wedding.

At weddings and corporate events, we have often been asked to play rather more gentle music as opposed to dance music through the period when food is being served. We can now offer a much lighter restaurant latin jazz / popular instrumental or vocal presentation from Keff McCulloch.

Introducing the band.....

Darren Hillier

(Bass guitar, mandolin and vocals) - Darren is an accomplished multi-instrumentalist who played in a variety of party bands including 'April City', 'The Gospel Soul Band' and 'Revival' before joining Freeze Frame. In addition to laying down the musical foundation for the band, Darren also plays mandolin and is a successful solo singer / songwriter.

Jamie Bruce

(Lead vocals) - Jamie is only 26 years old but he is already a seasoned performer. He has been a professional musician for nearly 8 years and has performed regularly with a number of covers bands including 'Revival' both as a singer and as a drummer. He has also had a number of successful solo projects and is a regular performer around the Oxford, Surrey and Berkshire regions. Jamie has rejoined Keff, Darren and Jem after a successful European tour with his acoustic trio.

Rachel Calandro

(Vocals and Percussion) - Rachel has now been a professional performer for more than 10 years, gaining a wide range of performing experience. As a Music & Theatre Studies graduate of what is now known as Hope University (Liverpool) and Drama Studio Ealing, her first professional engagements were in the theatre, performing anything from serious theatrical roles, to a pantomime princess opposite Julie Goodyear. However, after working as a production vocalist for Thomson Holidays in 2000, Rachel, with her unique vocal power and expression, has worked consistently as both a solo artist and as a lead vocalist with several bands, in and around the London area.

Jeremy Fisher

(Drums and vocals) - Jeremy (Jem) is a very experienced drummer who has played in a variety of successful covers bands across the south-east of England. He toured extensively with 'The Directors' and 'Revival' and a host of function bands prior to joining 'Freeze Frame'. In addition to setting the groove for the band, Jeremy sings lead and backing vocals.

Jon Clarke

(Guitar and vocals) - Jon is a multi-instrumentalist and has been a vocalist, guitarist and producer for many years playing with bands such as "The Suspex" and "Obsession". He performed at the Royal Albert Hall at the tender age of 14. Jon writes and produces his own material, and has worked with various artists around the world during his musical career.

Carl Engelmarc

(Keys, Guitar and vocals) - Carl is a multi-instrumentalist and has been a professional musician and producer for most of his life playing with everything from small jazz bands, to heavy metal acts, to large symphonic orchestras in Scandinavia, Canada and the UK. Carl also performs with his own band mfish, signed indie pop band Big500, and various jazz bands and artists. Carl is also a songwriter, composer, producer and arranger.
