NATASHA GELSTON

Vocals

Natasha has been singing professionally since she was very young. At the age of 15, she attended the Guildhall School of Music and Drama for Jan vocal training and went on to complete a BA (Hons) music degree at Anglia Polytechnic University.

In recent years, she has performed all over the UK and at many of London's top venues - including: The London Palladium, 100 Club (Oxford Street), Hilton Hotel (Park Lane), Grosvenor House Hotel (Park Lane) and Smollensky's (The Strand). Closer to home, she has appeared at the famous Cambridge Corn Exchange.

Natasha has sung alongside the likes of Lee Gibson, Tina May, Selina Jones, Digby Fairweather and she is a guest-vocalist for the Humphrey Lyttelton Band. Between the ages of 15- 18 she was lead singer for the National Youth Jan Orchestra.

To compliment her resume of live performances, Natasha's work as a session musician has lead her to record a variety of television advertisements, a television film series and a pop CD which was recently on general release throughout the UK.

At present, Natasha can be seen performing with her Jazz Quintet at venues throughout London and the Home Counties, in addition to providing lead vocals and saxophone for funk band 'Disco Inferno' - as well as her performances with 'Xanadu'.

'A highly respected performer, with a wonderfully smooth jazzy voice, Natasha is surely one of the UK's most talented vocalists.

VICTORIA MILLS

Vocals

Originally providing the backing-vocals for a 'Commitments' tribute show, Victoria was soon spotted by the highly acclaimed BBC Musical Director Cy Payne and was invited to join his band as guest-vocalist. Since then, Victoria has performed all over the world with many different acts, sharing the bill with a wide variety of artistes, including Patti Boulaye, Jim Davidson and Mike & The Mechanics.

More recently she performed the female lead in Latino song and dance stage-show 'South American Way' before going on to record her own composition for entry in the 'Song For Europe' contest. This was followed by an extensive tour as backing vocalist with a 'Stars In Their Eyes' theatre show, female lead in the 'Magic of The Musicals' show at Hotel Intercontinental in Dubai, and a 5-year residency with a cocktail-duo at 'Centerparcs'.

She has performed at many UK venues, including The Dorchester, Claridges & Sandringham House and has been chosen to sing at many prestigious events including the Tory Party 2001 Election Ball, Daimler Centennial Ball & the Royal Westmoreland Summer 2000 Golf Tournament (Barbados).

Previous clients include Damon Hill, Mickey Dolenz, William Hague, Linda Barker, Fiona Phillips, Eastenders cast & Peter Stringfellow.

Since 2000, Victoria has been touring the UK and abroad with the highly acclaimed Andy Leek band (Dexy's Midnight Runners), in addition to performing with showband 'The Right Stuff', female duos 'Xanadu' and 'Allure', cocktail trio 'Manhattan' and providing vocals for the summer 2000 Top 20 club- 'hit' 'Caribbean Affair'. She was also the feature of an article in the August 2002 issue of top magazine Marie Claire: Victoria sings with intelligence & emotion and is one of the most captivating performers of today.
